

The IEP and Me

OT, PT, Speech and Other Related Services' Role in the IEP Process

with Jennifer Wissinger, PT, DPT, ABPTS-Certified PCS

On-Demand Webinar

1.5 Hours | $65

Elevate your therapy practice!

This course is focused on the development of the Individualized Education Program (IEP) document, the IEP meeting process and the implementation of the IEP, and your contribution in each of these as a related service provider. Jen will provide guidance and examples on completing various parts of the IEP document, such as the Present Level of Performance, Annual Goals and Progress Reporting, via a case study of a student receiving OT, PT and Speech services. Jen will also discuss other aids and services that may be included in the IEP, such as assistive technology, accommodations and modifications. Finally, she will present on the implementation of the IEP by discussing the plan of care, supervising therapy assistants, workload versus caseload, scheduling considerations, direct interventions and services on behalf of the student.

Audience: OTs, PTs, OTAs, PTAs, SLPs & Educators

Educational Level: Intermediate

Learning Objectives

At the completion of this course, attendees will be able to:

1. Recognize two opportunities for collaboration in the IEP development process.
2. Identify examples of related service provider's contribution to two sections in the IEP to support the team and the education of a student with a disability in school.
3. Select two examples of how a related service provider can address participation through service delivery as part of a team in an educational setting.

Your Mentor: Jennifer Wissinger, PT, DPT, ABPTS-Certified PCS serves early intervention and preschool in Columbus, Ohio. She is a Board-Certified Clinical Specialist in Pediatric Physical Therapy with over 15 years of experience practicing in public school districts (preschool through high school), county board of developmental disability programs for adults, home health care, and early intervention. She has served as an instructor in the pediatric curriculum in the physical therapy program at Ohio State University, a mentor in a pediatric residency program, and in leadership roles in the Academy of Pediatric Physical Therapy.
